Institut Kimia Malaysia (IKM), in collaboration with Himpunan Kimia Indonesia (HKI) and the Foundation for Interaction between Science & Technology (FIST) Japan, are jointly organising the International Congress on Pure & Applied Chemistry (ICPAC) Bali 2023 from 13 - 17th September 2023 in Bali, Indonesia. ICPAC Bali 2023 is the seventh of a series of major international scientific meeting covering all areas of pure and applied chemistry including specific themed symposia. The theme, “Advancing Chemical Science for Sustainability & Environmental Protection in Asia and the Pacific”, means that the Congress will focus on advancing chemistry for meeting the UN Sustainable Development Goals 2030. ICPAC Bali 2023 will comprise the following General Session and Symposia:

ICPAC Bali 2023 General Session (IGS)
Symposium on Organic and Biomolecular Chemistry (OBC)
Symposium on Inorganic and Coordination Chemistry (ICC)
Symposium on Physical Chemistry and Catalysis (PCC)
Symposium on Analytical and Environmental Chemistry & Engineering (AEC)
Symposium on Polymer and Materials Chemistry (PMC)
